ONGI ETORRI AITA ANTON EGIGUREN

Thanks to the generosity of so many supporters, we once again have a Basque priest among us. Aita Antton Egiguren arrived on November 28 to begin his ministry to the Basque people of Idaho and surrounding Basque communities. Aita Antton is a priest of the Franciscan order who speaks fluent Euzkara along with 10 other languages. He has been appointed Parochial Vicar of St. John’s Cathedral and will make his residence there at the rectory. He has been asked to provide pastoral and sacramental attention to the Basque community in our area and this will be his primary focus. Aita Antton hopes to interact with as many Basques as possible through liturgies (weddings, funerals, Masses in many parishes), Christian formation and spirituality, and outreach to the elderly, those in long-term care, those who are alone, or families in need.

Initial contributions have paid for Aita’s immigration expenses, the cost of shipping his personal effects and his airline ticket. Any future contributions will support his ongoing ministry and may be made through Euzkaldunak’s Basque Foundation: Attention Aita Egiguren Support Fund. Aita is looking forward to meeting as many fellow Euzkaldunak as possible so that he can plan how best to serve our Basque community.

THE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF BOISE,
STATE OF IDAHO

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Hank and Gerri Achurra have supervised and perfected the construction, maintenance, and running of the Oinkari chorizo booth at the Western Idaho Fair since its opening more than 50 years ago; and
- WHEREAS, Hank and Gerri dedicate their hard earned vacation time to spend long, scorching days slaving over hot grills with sweaty teenagers serving thousands of croquetas and hundreds of pounds of chorizo, solomo, and lamb to delighted fairgoers each summer; and
- WHEREAS, the playhouse of the Achurra children - fully constructed in their backyard - serves as the chorizo booth that is towed to the fair in the truck Hank bought specifically for this purpose, where Hank patiently explains the booths setup to fourteen year olds multiple times a year without ever rolling his eyes; and
- WHEREAS, Hank is the fry master of the world; and
- WHEREAS, Gerri's kindness is well known to the employees and vendors of the Western Idaho Fair and she has the ability to make every Oinkari boy feel like he is the best grill cleaner in the history of the booth - and universe - whether he is or not; and
- WHEREAS, Gerri always insists on cleaning the floors of the booth on her hands and knees, leaves the fair every night after midnight and is back the next morning at 6:00 a.m. with freshly cleaned aprons; and
- WHEREAS, the contributions of Hank and Gerri have reached far beyond the Western Idaho Fair and Oinkari dancers, extending to the entire Basque community through their work on the Euzkaldunak board as well as multiple Jaialdi boards, including the original one; and
- WHEREAS, Boise is richer because of the Achurra's presence and dedication to their community and chorizos.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, DAVID H. BIETER, Mayor of the City of Boise, Idaho do hereby proclaim December 16, 2014 to be in Boise, Idaho.

Hank and Gerri Achurra Appreciation Day
