EUZKALDUNAK GENERAL MEETING & ELECTION RECAP

The general meeting, which serves as the annual membership meeting for all Euzkaldunak members, began at 7:30 PM on January 26. Tyler opened the meeting by welcoming everyone. He thanked the Ikastola for being the dinner hosts. He thanked outgoing board members Johnny Boyd, Ryan Boyd, Alicia Knox, Alicia Lachiondo, and Ricardo Yanci for their time and hard work.

Tyler presented the nominees for the five open board positions: Johnny Boyd, Ryan Boyd, Alicia Knox, Ricardo Yanci, Patrick Bidegary, and Larry Benson. He opened nominations from the floor. Mary Lou Guerricabeitia nominated Antton Egiguren. The nomination was seconded, and Antton accepted. There was a motion and second that nominations cease. The motion carried. The 7 candidates came to the stage. They each introduced themselves. Members were asked to vote for 5 candidates. The ballots were collected and taken to the office to be counted.

Tyler presented the financial report for 2018. He noted that increased security costs and the cost of bringing a band from the Basque Country to play increased the expenses for San Inazio. Tyler noted that the Shepherders Ball brought in $15,000. Everyone was thanked for their generosity. The replacement of the sewer line and the first stages of the renovation plan are the main expenses for 2018. He then opened the floor for questions. It was asked to clarify what expenses are in the "other operating expenses" category. He explained that these are such things as laundry, memorial masses for deceased members, ikurriñak for deceased charter members and past presidents. The major item is the $25,000 spent for renovation plans. The increased costs of security, lighting, sound, entertainment, and wristbands account for the majority of the expense increase for San Inazio 2018 over 2017.

Bryan gave a history of the building committee and its activities over the past couple of years.

The committee was formed in 2017 to go through the building to identify areas of need for improvements/repairs. The sewer line and water line replacements were identified as priority projects. As many areas were identified the committee decided to move forward by consulting an architect. What are the parameters for these projects? Are they feasible? The first thing to do was to assess the current condition of the building. This included testing for hazardous materials such as asbestos. An electrical engineer was also brought in as was a kitchen design consultant. Taking the information and ideas, 2D and 3D renderings have been created. In the coming months the committee will share renderings and cost estimates with the membership via newsletters, monthly dinners, and town-hall style meetings.

Argia presented a brief NABO report. She began by thanking the membership for letting her serve as the representative this past year. Argia noted that Udaleku 2019 will be held in San Francisco June 16-28. There will be room for approx. 100 participants. Applications will be available online beginning on March 1 at 7:00 PM. Argia reminded everyone that Euzkaldunak offers scholarships to help defray the costs. The deadline for scholarship applications is February 15. Other NABO-related dates include:

- Salt Lake will host Udaleku in 2020.
- Boise will host a fall meeting in 2023 and the NABO Convention in 2025.
- There are rule changes being discussed for NABO Mus. This includes moving the Mus Final to Father's Day weekend each year instead of it being on a rotating date.

Tyler finished the meeting by announcing the 2019 board of directors. Joining Tyler Smith, Ed Orbea, Bryan Day, Martin Bilbao, and Sara Urizar-Smith are Johnny Boyd, Ryan Boyd, Ricardo Yanci, Alicia Knox, and Patrick Bidegary. Antton Egiguren is the 2019 alternate. The Board then met upstairs and elected Ed Orbea President, Martin Bilbao Vice President, and Tyler Smith as the Basque Foundation's NABO representative.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would like to extend an Eskerrik Asko (Thank You) to all the members who attended the 2018 Member's Dinner and Annual Meeting on January 26.

A special thanks to Alicia Lachiondo for their dedication and commitment to the board during her term as director.

As the newly elected president, I am looking forward to getting to better know the membership and the members of the other Basque organization in Southern Idaho, and I'm especially excited about activities performed by the Building Committee and am looking forward to sharing more information with the membership.

The Board of Directors and the Foundation Staff will continue to expand our successful programs and event. We strive to continue promoting Basque Culture and Traditions for both the current and the future generations.

– Ed Orbea
