EUKALDUNAK, EST. 1949

In 1949, 500 charter members founded Euzkaldunak, a social club limited to people of Basque extraction and their families. John Bastida, Teles Hormaechea and Julian Lachiondo came up with the name Euzkaldunak (those who speak Euskara). The group wrote up the by-laws and appointed the directors and officers. Luis Madarieta was chosen as President, Tony Bicandi was Vice President and Joe & Julia Uberuaga were Secretary & Treasurer. The Directors were John Bastida, Joe Aldape, Teles Hormaechea, Pete Leguineche and Marie Teresa Villanueva. The by-laws were ratified at the Director's Board meeting on February 24, 1949 and adopted by the members at the first meeting held that same day. Euzkaldunak, Inc. was incorporated on March 28, 1949 by Juanita Y. Aldrich, Luis Madarieta, John C Bastida, Tom Bicandi and Teles Hormaechea.

That year, club members found an ideal location where they could build a center to meet and socialize—the corner of Sixth and Grove, on the Uberuaga boarding house garden plot in the heart of the downtown Basque neighborhood.

Built as a social club and gathering place, the Basque Center has played an important role in the history of the Basques here. The Basque Center helps maintain the Basque heritage by supporting Basque dancing, events, and gatherings. This has been enabled by the Basque community all across the Treasure Valley coming together for different annual events such as Basque card tournaments, the San Inazio festival, the November Morzilla dinner featuring Basque blood sausage, and the Sheepherder's Ball Dinner and Dance to raise money to help individuals and families in need throughout the year.

The Center fosters the preservation of Basque traditions, a space for those who long for the heritage that makes the Basque culture so distinct. It is common to walk into the Basque Center and see half a dozen first- and second-generation older gentlemen taking a break from their Mus card game (played in the upstairs "members only" card room) to grab a coffee or a glass of red wine. Whether they go there daily or weekly, simply being at the Basque Center has become a ritual integral to their daily lives. As a social hub, it is common for local Basques to meet at the Center after work, after church or before dinner. And passersby often peek into the bar just to see who is there, or to join their friends to enjoy one of the least expensive libations in Boise. In 2019, the Basque Center celebrates its 70th year in our community, and we look forward to its next 70 years.

"Izan zirelako gara; garelako izango dira"

Because they were, we are; because we are, they will be.

SONG OF THE BASQUE 2

In 1949, leaders in our community accepted an invitation from Boise Music Week to participate in their annual May production. Talented performers from the Treasure Valley—led by Juanita “Jay” Hormaechea—put together a variety show that showcased Basque culture. The production, titled “Song of the Basque,” was a huge and wonderful success. More importantly, it marked a transformative moment for that generation of Basques, and Basque culture as it became an important part of the fabric of the larger community. So now, 70 years to the month later, a sequel is coming! Song of the Basque 2 will be a featured show at Boise’s 2019 Music Week on Sunday, May 5 at 3:00 PM in the Morrison Center.

The effort has been headed by an organizing committee that has met for nearly two years. The committee is made up of Johnny Aldape, Juliana Jausoro Aldape, Dan Ansotegui, Chris Bieter, Al Erquiaga, Maite Iribarren-Gorrindo, Jaclyn Lasuen, Gloria Garatea Lejardi, Julie Lachiondo Lliteras, Patty Miller, Gina Ansotegui Urquidi, Isana Urquidi and John Ysursa. (Special thanks to Jerry Loyd who hosted the planning meetings.) Last spring, the committee asked writer, director, and actor Doug Copsey to join the Song 2 group. Doug agreed, wrote a script, and now we are into rehearsals! It’s a new story, but with some re-creation moments from original ‘49 show.

The tickets for the show follow the Music Week tradition of being free (except for a service charge) and those will be made available by Music Week to everyone on April 17th.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Next month marks the 70th anniversary of the founding of Euzkaldunak. As we celebrate this milestone, we have an opportunity to reflect on the illustrious history of the club and to dream about our collective futures together this year. In order to maximize our opportunities this year, we need to overcome the challenges and limitations what we all too often impose upon ourselves. What new goal can we achieve? Where will the road ahead take us? How will we influence the next chapter on Euzkaldunak’s history?

Let’s rekindle old bonds and friendships, make new ones, and embrace our culture to propel Euzkaldunak forward.

Looking ahead to July 26-28 be sure to mark your calendars and make plans to join us on the Basque Block for the feast of San Inazio. With utmost pride and enthusiasm, I say unto you all: "Happy 70th Anniversary."
